

CREATIVE COMMUNITY FELLOWS NEW ENGLAND

NAS believes that arts and culture are vital to community life.

We also believe that community is vital to arts and culture. We've seen that the leaders who thrive are the ones who understand and connect with their communities. They partner with other local organizations and take part in civic initiatives. Most importantly, they listen to community members. This kind of connectivity and relevance is the key to sustainability.

Is this you? Are you creating positive community change through arts and culture? Apply to be a Creative Community Fellow!

LEARN

Explore tools and frameworks from faculty at the University of Pennsylvania, NAS, mentors, practitioners in the field and your peers in the areas of strategy, design thinking and leadership.

APPLY

Put your new knowledge into practice right away. Together, we'll test, adapt and build on your work. You'll walk away with clarity... and a game plan.

CONNECT

Join a community of collaborators dedicated to learning from and sharing with each other. It's a connected cohort that continues to support each other long after the program concludes.

"I've learned a very useful set of tools such as logic models, empathy mapping, personal mantras, how to embrace failure and that I have a supportive community to lean upon as I move forward."

EMILY PUTHOFF
Hudson Valley Bee Habitat
Kingston, NY

"This experience has been so inspiring. I came in with a really good idea and a dream and this vision for my project, but just coming here I realized that there's so many steps to make that dream a reality. Having that aha! moment in the middle of Vermont with this amazing weather, amazing house and amazing people has been really magical and transformational."

TERÉ FOWLER CHAPMAN
Words on the Avenue | Tucson, AZ

"The power of being in dialogue with like-minded and passionate individuals from diverse backgrounds, that is what I appreciate the most."

CLARO DE LOS REYES
Infinity & Fourth
Brooklyn, NY
