NAS believes that arts and culture are vital to community life. We also believe that community is vital to arts and culture. We’ve seen that the leaders who thrive are the ones who understand and connect with their communities. They partner with other local organizations and take part in civic initiatives. Most importantly, they listen to community members. This kind of connectivity and relevance is the key to sustainability.

Is this you? Are you creating positive community change through arts and culture? Apply to be a Creative Community Fellow!

LEARN
Explore tools and frameworks from faculty at the University of Pennsylvania, NAS, mentors, practitioners in the field and your peers in the areas of strategy, design thinking and leadership.

APPLY
Put your new knowledge into practice right away. Together, we’ll test, adapt and build on your work. You’ll walk away with clarity... and a game plan.

CONNECT
Join a community of collaborators dedicated to learning from and sharing with each other. It’s a connected cohort that continues to support each other long after the program concludes.

TO LEARN MORE OR APPLY, GO TO: artstrategies.org/creative_community_fellows
WHO SHOULD APPLY

YOU ARE

An artist, community organizer, administrator or entrepreneur working on a project to create positive community change through arts and culture

Living and working in one of the following six states: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, or Vermont

Curious, open, and collaborative

Looking to join a community of practice that will hold you accountable

Ready to contribute your skills and take the time to apply what you learn

TUITION IS ON US

Thanks to the generous support of The Barr Foundation, all tuition, including the cost of lodging, food, local transportation and program fees ($8,000) is completely underwritten.

Fellows are responsible for their transportation to and from the two in-person events.

QUESTIONS?

LET’S TALK.

Send Sunny an email at swidmann@artstrategies.org or call (571) 482-5789

TO LEARN MORE OR APPLY, GO TO: artstrategies.org/creative_community_fellows